ATLANTA RALLYING TO FORREST ADAIR FUND

This suggestion of a popular tribute to Forrest Adair, the chief executive of Atlanta's storiedly successful Shriners has caught.

"Forty thousand Shriners are singing Atlanta's praises everywhere," wrote the Lippincott-Pattillo agency, sending its check. "Atlanta can do too much for that lovable, warm-hearted price of good fellows, Forrest Adair."

"That's the spirit of it! The letter might better have said two hundred thousand Shriners, though, for that's the membership of the nobility; and by placing those who come, Atlanta has placed those others who had to stay at home. It has been one of the greatest things Atlanta ever did."

"I said an out-of-town man recently: 'You folks feel mighty good after winning that regional bank; and grand opera has put another feather in your cap. But wait till you have everything those Shriners. If you do that, then you will have something to boast of."

"We did it, but we're not going to brag. Let the Shriners speak that part of it, and we won't have to say a word. The benefits will be coming to us for years."

"Apparently the feeling is general among all foreigners that the city which has been the scene of the revolution and the assassination of a man who was the symbol of the old regime and the assumption of power by the new regime, is a city which is full of life and energy, and which is a city which is full of life and energy, and which is a city which is full of life and energy, and which is a city which is full of life and energy, and which is a city which is full of life and and which is a city which is full of life and energy, and

ACQUITTAL IS EXPECTED FOR BURNS AND LEHON

Detectives' Answer to Contempt Charge Probably Will Clear Them

The hearing of the charge of contempt of court against William J. Burns and Dan S. Lehon, his associate in the Frank investigation, which was set for Friday, was postponed until next week, with no definite date fixed.

Lehon and Burns, through their attorneys, Little, Powell, Hooper & Goldstein, have filed an answer to the contempt charge, which attorneys generally believe fully purges them of any contempt, even if there was a prima facie case against them. As a result, it is expected the hearing will be extremely short and the charge in all probability dismissed.

The answer of Burns and Lehon develops the interesting fact that they were advised by Attorney Luther Z. Rosser and Reuben R. Arnold that there was not the slightest impropriety or illegality in their conduct in sending the witness, Annie Mabel Carter, out of the city, but that it was the appropriate and proper thing to do under the circumstances.

WAS AIDING THE COURT.

The answer says: "Dependent believes that in so doing (sending the witness out of town) he was serving the cause of right and justice, and was aiding the court in the ascertainment of truth, and was in no wise intending any contempt of court or of its processes, but was endeavoring to assist the court in hearing its witnesses brought into court free from any improper influence being exerted upon them."

The answer set out that nothing beyond the expenses of the woman, was paid her and that it is well within the scope of the situation that where a witness is being detained for the use of a party that it is proper that the party should pay the expenses actually incurred, and that if the defendant had voluntarily paid the expenses that she would have been legally liable for them.

The defendant was acting in good faith and honestly endeavoring to assist the court, and was not obstructing the court, the answer stated.

Lehon sets out that when he saw Annie Mabel Carter she was in the office of Attorney Herbert and Leonard Glass and that she had just made the affidavit in the Frank case, and was expressing fear that when the fact became known that she was a witness for Frank that she would be subjected to violence, or coercion or imprisonment by the city detectives, and they (Burns and Lehon) had to guarantee that she would be protected before she signed the affidavit.

WOMAN WAS SCARED.

The woman was badly frightened, the answer sets out, and it was feared that if she were not protected she would be harmed.

if not kept under surveillance she would run away and not be present at the trial as she was needed at any time to give oral testimony. With that in view two Burns operatives were ordered to guard her night and day.

The answer then sets out that because of this surveillance and protection, Lehon was enabled to get the woman back to the city and turn her over to the sheriff of the county, when the court ordered her brought back to its jurisdiction.

She was a witness for the defense, the paper sets out, and it was considered necessary to keep her whereabouts known to the defendant and his counsel, and to keep her where she was free from being tampered with by adverse interested parties.

Lehon is still in the city, ready to attend any hearing, but Burns, who is in New York, will probably not return unless his personal appearance in court is desired by Judge Hill.

APPLY SULPHUR IF SKIN BREAKS OUT SULPHUR DRIES UP ECZEMA USE LIKE COLD CREAM TO STOP ITCHING

Any breaking out or irritation on the face, arms, legs or body which is caused by itching, or when the skin is dry and feverish, can be readily overcome by applying a little sulphur cream, says a noted dermatologist.

He informs us that sulphur cream instantly allays the angry itching and soothes the swollen and itchy skin. Eczema right up leaving the skin clear and smooth. Sulfur cream has occupied a secure position for many years in the treatment of cutaneous disorders because of its parasite-destroying property. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in treating the irritating and inflammatory skin affection.

While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to subside the itching irritation and drive the eczema away and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin. Those troubled should obtain any pharmacy an ounce of sulphur cream which is applied to the affected parts in the same manner as an ordinary cold cream. It is not unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded, particularly in itching eczema, proves very welcome.

COLUMBIA, S. RED CROSS SOCIETY IN NEW OFFICES ON H STREET

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 15.—An American Red Cross society which has for its main building its principal offices in the state, war and navy building today moved into new and more commodious quarters about a square away at Seventeenth and H streets. Lack of adequate quarters necessitated the change. The new quarters will bring all of the departments of the organization in closer communication and thereby facilitate its work.

"A stitch in time saves nine." "A word to the wise is worth a pound of flesh." These are old sayings, but they have suffered with catarrh of stomach and kidneys for years. He said: "I have taken a great many different kinds of treatment for my troubles. I would have such a full feeling after eating moderately—boiling, belching, nervousness of bowels, distension, the pain would jump and flutter at times, pains across my back, and my kidneys were a great annoyance to me, especially at night. A friend of mine advised me to try Quaker Extract. I called at the drug store and I will tell you I feel better seven days I will tell you I feel better than I have in many years. My pains are all gone. I eat well, sleep like a babe and I feel at last I have found a permanent cure."

Another case is that of a well-known man, Mr. Pat Tucker, who is an engineer and who suffered for years with catarrh of stomach and kidneys. He said: "I have taken a great many different kinds of treatment for my troubles. I would have such a full feeling after eating moderately—boiling, belching, nervousness of bowels, distension, the pain would jump and flutter at times, pains across my back, and my kidneys were a great annoyance to me, especially at night. My pains are all gone. I eat well, sleep like a babe and I feel at last I have found a permanent cure."

Now, these are a few more good reports of the good Quaker Extract. Why will you wait and suffer? Why see your neighbors being cured all around you? Quaker Extract is all around you. Quaker Extract is all around you. Quaker Extract is all around you. Quaker Extract is all around you. Quaker Express charges on all orders of $2 or over.—(ADVT.)

PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED FOR SUCCESS OF REVIVAL

Baptists Urge Co-operation of All Christians, Regardless of Creed

In an appeal to every Christian in Atlanta to help in the religious campaign which will be begun in Atlanta Sunday in every Baptist church in the city, Rev. Dr. Weston Bruner, who is in charge of the services, has sent a letter to every Protestant evangelist minister in the city, asking their co-operation.

Although the campaign will be made under the direction of the evangelist department of the Baptist Home Mission board, it is intended to make its scope wider than that bounded by any denomination or any creed.

"Atlanta is great in commercial aspect and her importance in this respect has never been questioned," says Dr. Bruner in the letter to the ministers of the city. "Will you not join in the prayer that Atlanta may become great in righteousness?"

During the two weeks the services are being held in the churches of the city it has been requested that every Christian in Atlanta pause at noon each day and spend a few minutes in prayer for the success of the efforts which are being made.

An invitation to every person in Atlanta to attend each of the services at any church which may be most convenient to them, has been issued. The purpose of the campaign will be to reach every person in Atlanta without exception, and to inaugurate a religious awakening which will spread throughout the south, with Atlanta as its center.

VISITING SHRINER HONORED BY TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION

Former Mayor Clayton, of St. Joseph, Mo., Given Handsome Silver Service

Peel Clayton, former mayor of St. Joseph, Mo., and past pontiff of the temple of that city, who came to Atlanta for the shrine convention, was presented with a handsome silver service, Thursday afternoon at the Ansley hotel by the Atlanta Typographical union No. 46, in appreciation of his courtesy and kindness to the delegates from this union to the International Typographical union's annual convention in St. Joseph.

The Atlanta typos in 1909 went after the 1909 convention for this city. They sent a large delegation to St. Joseph and Atlanta's largest was pressed in competition with Minneapolis, Salt Lake City and other large cities. The Atlanta delegates did not win, but they were the recipients of so many hospitable attentions from Mayor "Peel" Clayton that they came home singing his praises. Any so when he came as a noble to attend the shrine convention in Atlanta, the typographical union remembered him and bought a handsome silver service for him.

Mayor James G. Woodward, a member of the Typographical union, delivered the presentation speech. Forrest Adair, pontiff of Yach's temple of Atlanta, accompanied the party to the Ansley hotel where the presentation of the silver service took place.

After the presentation the party adjourned to the restaurant of the hotel and enjoyed a feast.

GEORGIA HIT FOR NEGLECT OF BIRTH REGISTRATIONS

Dr. Cessy L. Wilbur, of Bureau of Census, Deplores
Present Status

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 15.—Dr. Cessy L. Wilbur, chief statistician of the bureau of the census at Washington, speaking today before the American Association of Societies for the Advancement of Charities, urged the need of birth registrations. Describing its present status as shamefully neglected, he decried the lack of adequate laws and thorough enforcement of such laws, compelling registration of births, were sorely needed in this country. He showed that the recording of deaths was much more complete in all states, furnishing vital statistics than the registration of births, the latter of which should mean improved agencies for the protection of the infant's life and health.

He pointed that Georgia is now the only state in the union which has not passed a general vital statistics law, South Carolina having adopted such a measure this year.

U. S. SOLDIER IS LOSING
MIND IN MEXICAN JAIL

Private in Fourth Cavalry Is Serving Eight Years for Killing Mexican

DOUGLAS, Ariz., May 15.—An American soldier serving a sentence in the jail at Douglas, Sonora, is rapidly losing his mind, according to B. S. Palmer, who passed through Douglas yesterday on the way from Chihuahua to El Paso, Texas.

Palmer said the soldier, who was a private in the Fourth United States cavalry, was sentenced eighteen months ago to serve eight years for the alleged murder of a Mexican in a dance hall at Naco.

Palmer recently was released from custody at Chihuahua where he was held as a day awaiting a hearing on the charge of having committed murder.

MRS. LLOYD B. FIELD.

The ban of excommunication from the Presbyterian church has been placed on Lloyd B. Field, formerly a minister of Macon, Ga., on the charge of alienating the affections of a wife from her husband, an Atlanta man, and for marrying the woman after she had obtained a divorce which the Presbyterian church does not recognize.

This news is contained in Arkansas Presbyterian church papers which have been received in Atlanta. They state that the presbytery of Pine Bluff, Ark., on April 14 of this year, deposed Rev. L. B. Field from the ministry and excommunicated him from the church. They state that Mr. Field gave notice of his intention to appeal to the synod of Arkansas.

The action of the church was taken, state the papers, because Mr. Field "knowingly and willfully contributed to the alienation of the affections of a woman from her husband and is married and now living with a woman not scripturally divorced from her husband, who is still living, and because the decree granted by the Texas court is null and void in the eyes of the church and contrary to the scriptures and to our standards."

The action of the Pine Bluff church follows an episode of last fall when Mrs. Field, then Mrs. William Hall, notified her husband, credit man of the International Agricultural corporation of Atlanta, with residence at 17 West Cain street, that she had entered suit for divorce.

Mr. Weston himself told the story of his wife's relations with Rev. Mr. Field. The Westons were living in Atlanta two years ago when Mrs. Weston met Mr. Field, then young minister of Macon, at an Atlanta soda fountain. In April, 1912, said Weston, his wife told him she was in love with Field and was going to Fort Worth, Tex., where Field had taken a church charge, to visit an uncle.

Mr. Weston said he was greatly shocked but did not try to dissuade her from her marriage, believing she would come to her senses. Two or three months later, he learned she did not intend to come back to him, and in the fall of 1913 he received notice that she had entered suit for divorce. At that time Mr. Field was suspended from the pastorate of Warren church, at Warren, Ark., an action which was followed by his deposition by the Pine Bluff members.

Mrs. Field, before her marriage to Weston, was Miss Lillian Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. L. Phillips, of Warsaw, Richmond county, Virginia.

Field is a graduate of Princeton university and is well known in Georgia, where for many years he had small Presbyterian church charges over the state.

CHIEF BEAVERS HIGHLY COMMENDED BY MANY

Efficient Work of Official and His Men During Shrine Week
Greatly Praised

Chief of Police James L. Beavers to the recipient of much praise from both Shriner and visiting detectives for the efficient manner in which the police have handled the vast crowds in Atlanta during the Shriner's convention. Many Shriners, themselves officers of police departments in other cities, in paying their respects to Chief Beavers, have declared that the Atlanta convention has passed with the least friction and least friction encountered than at any similar gathering of their kind.

Comparatively few cases of pickpocketing have been reported and these have all been small. Negroes have been charged with practically all of these and two negro men have been bound over from the recorder's court for this offense.

During the past eight months seven pickpockets, known throughout the country have fallen into the toils of the Atlanta police. Three of these, Max Fine, alias Charles Cohen, Louis Gosselin, and William Hoffman, are now serving two-year terms in the Fulton county chain-gang.

Harry Gramer was released upon a $2,000 cash bond and disappeared. His two partners, William Moffatt and J. L. Peterson, alias "Kansas City," caught with him, were released upon bonds of $1,000 each and have also disappeared, forfeiting these amounts. These three robbed a man in a downtown hotel. They were chased several blocks through the Union station and the railroad yards, where they were captured after a fight.

Willis Newman, alias half a dozen names, was returned to Chicago after failure to convict him here on a pickpocket charge, and is there held for stealing.

The police attribute the smallness of the number of cases recently to the fact that these men have passed through here and been severely fined. They in turn warned other crooks to beware of Atlanta.

Chief Beavers stressed the fact that so much was done in spite of the fact that the Atlanta police department is not a member of the national bureau of police identification, the great crook clearing house. This membership, enjoyed by many cities of only 2,000 or 4,000 population and by all larger cities, costs but $50 a year. For the cleaning up of crooks, he stated, it is alone worth a thousand times that amount.

ORATORICAL CONTESTS ARE HELD AT OXFORD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
OXFORD, Ga., May 15.—Fully 2,500 people are attending the second annual Newton county fair and oratorical contests which began at Oxford this morning. Every school in the county, numbering twenty-four, were represented by displays of their school work and had representatives in the recitation, declamation and music contests.

The fair and contests are under the supervision of Prof. J. O. Martin, county school commissioner, and Miss Clyde Willis, instructor of domestic science. The pupils and teachers of every county are attending the exercises.

It is interesting that these events which were the first to be held in the state are going on in Oxford which has been known for over three-quarters of a century as the home of Emory college, one of the oldest educational institutions in the state.

ASKS $15,000 FOR FALL DOWN TERMINAL STEPS

Alleging serious injuries as a result of a fall down the steel steps leading to the train in the Terminal station, Mrs. Laura C. Flinders has filed suit for $15,000 damages in superior court against the Atlanta Terminal company. Mrs. Flinders alleges her fall was caused by the fact that the steps were slippery where the rubber tops had worn off.

SHRINE BRIGANDS STEAL DULUTH TEMPLE'S CANNON

Entire Artillerymen Away From
It Into Hotel, and Gun Disappears

How on earth they got it, nobody knows. But the fact is, a muley matter of profoundly good consequence. The fact remains, however, that Shrine brigands purloined one large full sized cannon from their brothers of Aed temple, of Duluth, Minn., of the Aed nobles went home without it Friday morning. They had reported their loss to the police, the fire department, the tax office, the state militia, the governor and everybody else with authority in Atlanta or the state of Georgia. Likewise the wires of the United States had flashed the message to sheriffs and chiefs of police.

You remember the cannon, of course. It was the one that trilled and rumbled through the streets for three days, behind half a dozen or more nobles of Aed. They would set up with it, whirl it round in a crowded street, square away, while the crowds fied in panic, and pull the lanyard. One expected anybody else, while the shake the very buildings. Instead, a pop like that of a shotgun would startle the nerves, and away would go the cannon for another salute elsewhere.

There was among the nobles of Aed, as they boarded their train Friday, that there may be a court-martial in patrol when it gets back to Duluth, and that Chief Gunner Loewus may be the principal figure in the proceeding. The cannon had been delivered into the complete custody of Chief Gunner Loewus, said the Aed nobles; and he couldn't produce it, and that was all there was to it. The capture of the cannon happened Wednesday night, when the Shrine men, who were happy, anyhow. They had recovered "Lil Arthur," the famous great German temple, of St. Paul, captured the goat months ago. Then Houston's Shrine, of El Mina temple, got him; and from them the Duluth Shriners got him back during the Atlanta meeting.

Concealed Weapons
CHICAGO, May 15.—A special court for hearing of men carrying concealed weapons has been established by Judge Charles A. McDonald, presiding chief justice of the criminal court. There was a run of North Dakota, the agency was named prosecutor of the gun court, and will make special efforts to get severe punishment for so-called gunners.

MANY DIE FROM FEVERS AND ACCIDENTS ON CANAL

Nearly 2,200 Workers Succumb
Between May 1, 1904, and March 31, 1914

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Nearly 2,200 workers on the Panama canal died from accidents and fevers between May 1, 1904, and March 31, 1914, according to statistics read by Representative Young of North Dakota, the house today. The total of 2,197 victims Mr. Young asserted was greater than the mortality from wounds and on the battlefield in the war of 1812 and the Mexican war combined; the revolution in the Philippines, the Spanish-American war.

Figures which Mr. Young said he had obtained from the Panama canal commission stated 1,219 deaths occurred in the canal zone from accidents between May 1, 1904, and March 31, 1914; 743 deaths from malarial fever and 228 deaths from typhoid fever between January 1, 1907, and March 31, 1914. There were 95,745 cases of malaria and 1,162 typhoid patients.

SHRINER POPULATION IS RAPIDLY THINNING OUT

Majority of Visitors Leave for Their Respective Cities.
Few Temples Remain

Atlanta's few population had dwindled to an almost imperceptible minimum Friday morning. The visiting Shriners, save a comparative few, were gone. Saba temple left during the morning for Chattanooga and home—Newark, N. J. Akbar temple, of Tulsa, Okla., still was taking its ease in Atlanta. Its plan being to bid us goodbye Saturday morning. In addition to these remained individuals, some with their wives, of a score or more of temples. In common with Atlanta's own Shriners of Yaarab temple, they had resumed everyday headgear and were not distinguishable in street or in the places where they could be found sight-seeing. They were here, though.

On a smaller scale, Wednesday night's scene of departing caravans were repeated Thursday afternoon and night. The Canadian temples started their long journey homeward during the afternoon. Damascus temple, of Rochester, N. Y., and the temple of the new imperial potentate, Frederick R. Smith, left in the afternoon. Others were going at later hours.

The special trains to Savannah, carrying members of the imperial council and their wives, nobles of Yaarab temple, and the Atlanta drum corps, took a large number of Shriners in that direction out of Atlanta. They will be back Saturday. By Saturday night the city will have said farewell to the last large group, and thereafter the individuals and couples will be leaving at intervals for a week.

That Atlanta was reluctant to let go the carnival spirit was manifested Thursday afternoon. C. L. Harwell, Yaarab, one of the hard working aides, heard that some of the Calgary nobles of Al Ashar temple had been too busy to see anything of Atlanta.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 116

Seeking Happiness

"All things are yours:

"Whether the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

"And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's."

The Shrine has gone.

Its Nobles are speeding home.

Atlanta is in their debt.

They have left with us more than money, the proof that fun can be clean, wholesome and joyous.

Noteworthy is it that the next convention of the Shrine goes to Seattle, another city that believes in cleanliness of life and freedom from protected vice.

Noteworthy again--Seattle's invitation was voiced and pressed by a minister of the Church of God.

Cities have no need for the impure and the vile to attract men who know life and its meaning.

The day has passed for the speaking of the fallen woman as "la fille de joie--the daughter of joy". For men know her to be both the child and mother of sorrows. And her tolerated existence as the prey of men in any city disgraces and does not attract.

Again, the Shriners have taught that liquor, wine and beer are not needed to give joy to life.

Drinking by some there was--But so little in comparison with the efforts of the law breakers of Atlanta as to make it negligible among the Nobles of the Shrine. When next they come, that the city will be free from this is the hope and belief of many who love Georgia and her capital and would have her purged of this disgrace of disregarding law. These distinctly owe a debt to those who frolicked, laughed and played in our City's streets.

And did you note---a prize fight was greatly advertised with the news that six pairs of negroes would fight for the deceleration of men not familiar with the South.

The fight did not occur.

It was called off: so few took the bait the promoters found it would not pay.

Men were living and enjoying life in Atlanta's streets. Brutality did not attract.

Atlanta is glad that the caravans came.

We acknowledge our debt to the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

POWER COMPANY'S BOND ISSUE BEFORE COMMISSION

Minority Stockholder's Attack on Petition Is Being Considered Friday

The second round of the attack on the Georgia Railway and Power company's authority to issue a substitute mortgage to secure the $2,000,000 bond creation of 1912 and to issue $500,000 of those bonds that were authorized in the commission's order of March 20, 1913, is being fought before the commission Friday.

This attack is a double-barrelled affair. Attorney Louis Powell, George Goldstein and Robert C. Altman, representing the minority stockholders, are resisting the power company's petition to the railroad commission and are also suing in Fulton superior court to have the power company's order of March 20, 1913, set aside. Judge Pendleton, before whom the suit was filed, declined to grant the petition, and the power company is now suing in the superior court to have the power company's order set aside.

On Thursday the commission held a hearing on the petition for authority to issue a substitute mortgage to secure the $2,000,000 bond creation of 1912 and to issue $500,000 of those bonds that were authorized in the commission's order of March 20, 1913.

The questions submitted by Attorney Altman were: (1) Whether the power company's petition for authority to issue a substitute mortgage to secure the $2,000,000 bond creation of 1912 and to issue $500,000 of those bonds that were authorized in the commission's order of March 20, 1913, is valid.

The power company, through its attorneys, further contends that the necessary substitute mortgage was given to the state of Georgia by the power company, and that the power company is entitled to the benefit of the mortgage.

NEGRO STUDENTS HEAR TALK ON "HOME LIFE"

Mrs. J. D. Hammond, of Augusta, Gives Interesting Address at Clark University

At the morning session of the Negro Christian students' conference, at Clark University, Mrs. J. D. Hammond, of Augusta, wife of the president of Fiske college, addressed the students on "Home Life," stressing the fact that the influence of a good mother at home would do more than anything else to better the conditions of the negro race.

Following this was a general discussion among the leading speakers, at present, of the Negro Christian students' conference, at Clark University.

Russia is being revolutionized and new epochs are being made in the history of nations by the progress of the students' Christian movement over the world.

Dr. Mott, who has traveled through every continent on the globe in the past year, declared that the students' Christian movement, from its inception several years ago in the land of 100 students, has become a world-wide movement.

A gathering of nearly 500 students in Atlanta, Georgia, at the opening session of the students' Christian movement, was held at the Clark University.

The power company, through its attorneys, further contends that the necessary substitute mortgage was given to the state of Georgia by the power company, and that the power company is entitled to the benefit of the mortgage.

Mrs. Preston in N. Y. (By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 12.—Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, formerly Mrs. Grover Cleveland, is expected to arrive in New York City tomorrow.

The power company, through its attorneys, further contends that the necessary substitute mortgage was given to the state of Georgia by the power company, and that the power company is entitled to the benefit of the mortgage.

A. R. Hambrick to Get Free Ride in Barrow On Street Saturday

George W. Wagner is looking forward to hard work and embarrassment. A. R. Hambrick is looking forward to a four blocks ride in a wheelbarrow, the people of East Atlanta are looking forward to a ride in a wheelbarrow, and Wagner is just an election bet that will be paid Saturday.

Wagner bet on Morris and Hambrick in the 1912 election, the stakes to be the four blocks ride. When Freeman won, Wagner agreed to pay the bet Saturday afternoon. When Hambrick, cordially invited the public to attend free of charge, brought against her by Telamon Cuyler Smith-Cuyler, of Atlanta, who alleged that Mrs. Barton, his mother-in-law, alienated the affections of his wife, Mrs. Grace T. Mrs. Barton declares that Cuyler spent money on women that was given to him by his wife, and that she paid the expenses of a trip to Europe she took with his wife, and paid all the bills for a lavish entertainment he gave at the Piedmont Hotel in 1911. Most of this time, alleges Mrs. Barton, Cuyler had been living in the vicinity of the hotel at that time.

Mrs. Barton's answer alleges that Cuyler himself caused the separation from his wife by his conduct. She says she never lost her love to a woman, but was engaged to be married by Mrs. Cuyler, who she said was a woman of "Cuffy Ruffles" is mentioned and an Atlanta woman named Constance Brown.

WOMAN IS INDICTED FOR MURDER OF HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Victor Hall, Widow of Merchant Shot to Death, Must Face Trial

LOUISA COURT HOUSE, Va., May 12.—Mrs. Victor Hall, widow of the young merchant shot to death in his home at Green Spring on April 15, was indicted this morning for murder by the special grand jury which has been investigating the crime.

Mrs. Hall, who was in the court house, having been taken into custody by a constable, was arrested, protesting her innocence.

The indictment charges that Mrs. Hall shot her husband while he was in bed at the morning of April 15. The theory upon which Mrs. Hall will be tried will be that she killed her husband because he threatened to expose her for setting fire to the store of W. M. Dunkum, a competitor, with whom she had quarreled. Her story was that a burglar shot her husband.

The grand jury will be called upon to investigate the burning of Dunkum's store on April 15, the destruction by fire of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad station at Green Spring, and the two attempts to burn down the Hall home.

Mrs. Hall was released on $5,000 bail to appear for trial in July.

Judge Shackelford granted bail on condition that Mrs. Hall leave Louisa county.

It is understood Mrs. Hall will leave here for Richmond this evening.

OUR ASTROLOGER

The stars incline, but do not compel.
Saturday, May 16, 1914.

This is seen as a doubtful and uncertain day by the astrologers, who find that, although Venus and Saturn are in heads aspect in the morning, Mercury and Sun disoblige.

Disappointments are foreshadowed in love affairs. The influences are held as auspicious for many matters concerning women, but girls should be cautious where men are concerned, especially where they appear to be desirable as husbands.

It is not an auspicious time for dealings with men who hold wide authority or who wield power. Negotiations concerning the welfare of nations are under an unfavorable rule.

Saturn is in a place said to be particularly lucky for mining operations. Great fortunes in Mexico and South America will be made by citizens of the United States who will co-operate with native mine owners there.

The prognostications for women are encouraging where their political aspirations are concerned. Again the signs are read as indicating the spread of equal suffrage.

There is a prophecy that women will not abstain from measures in support of an ambitious party leader, who will begin a startling campaign destined to bring disreputable and political disaster.

The stars, which have presaged great loss of life in accidents and through violence, warn persistently against danger of death by drowning. So many of this year's predictions have been fulfilled that wise women and men should take precautions to safeguard themselves.

The passage of Mars through Leo is interpreted as likely to bring about troubles in France and Italy. Disorders are probable on the 24th and 25th.

A London astrologer sees in the horoscope of Theodore Roosevelt an omen which bodes "reversal of experience."

Persons whose birthdate it is probably will meet many anxieties in the coming year. In fact, the circle of illness and change are indicated.

Children born on this day have the augury of success, if they open their eyes in the early light, but if they begin their conscious life in the afternoon, they will find it in the responsibilities and to meet many difficulties.

Those who are subjects of Taurus and whose principal ruling planet is Venus, should be careful of their health.

THE REST HOUR.
When lying down for the rest, it is never wise to have the head too high. In this position the chest, regular and conscious breathing results to nerves, and the nervous development of the chest and aiding digestion is the most possible.

OUTSIDE OF THAT—

After a short interview with Manager Stallings the only complaint he has to offer is about this: "I've got a good ball club, but the hell of it is that it's winning."

THE CORRECT DIAGNOSIS.

As we understand the inter-sectional situation now at hand, the correct diagnosis is about this:
If the Pirates, having subdued the west, can stamp the stuffing out of Giants, Dodgers, Phillies and Braves they should maintain their present lead. Otherwise, perhaps not.

If the Tigers can splash along victoriously through the east without losing too many games they will return home still in front. Otherwise, it all depends.
At which point the professor will kindly tear off a few strips of that beautiful melody entitled "If you can get by with it, why there's nothing else that counts."

What has become of the old-fashioned Wagner who used to bat .340 and knock base hits all around the yard? Answer: Just about where he was in 1896—only a trifle mossier.

According to an authentic report from Chicago, Brooklyn, Baltimore and St. Louis the early report that the Feds would blow up before May was greatly exaggerated.

A DELAYED WARBLE.

When once I smoke my bloomin' lyre
And rapped the pill upon the job.
The cheering rosters used to say
"The old boy stands up like a Cobb."

And yet each time I smoke a hit
Deep anguish crowned my troubled face
To think no Crawford was around
To drive me home from second base.

When Jerry Travers shot that 69 at Sandwich the British lion is said to have suddenly lost its keen appetite for food of any sort. Travers was known to be a dangerous contender, but shooting a 69 over the Sandwich course is something beyond merely dangerous. It is more like murder.

Reports have come across that Travers is now at the crest of his game and that 69 is fair evidence that said reports were about correct. And equally fair evidence that the Clifton from Upper Montclair still knows something about the use of a wooden club.

THE BALM IN BOSTON'S GILEAD.

There's nothing like having one eternal institution around to erase a part of the indigo. Each time the Braves or Red Sox drop another battle the Boston populace focuses its attention upon next November and the 37-yard line.

THE POLO SITUATION.

If England was sending over what she considered to be one of her best polo delegations America could afford to rest easily. Last spring about this time the Big Four were all in and England had a merry nip.

But now that England figures her chances well below par with the dice all against her, America might as well get set for a shock. Reference is made to the several annual athletic contests between the Yel Jackets of Yale and the Georgia boys of Athens. This afternoon the two teams play the first game of the season and two-game series scheduled between them.

Last season the advance does all favoring the Athenians to win, but the Jackets reversed the forecast by taking two at Athens, dropping the first in a week later, and then making the final. This year, with a narrow margin favoring the Georgia boys on advance stuff, they have run eye to eye, forming thus far, by peeling off victories in both games played on their home soil.

True enough the second was a brilliant affair, running in the order of the kind that Nick Carter used to put over in the good old days. But for all of that the Red and Black added both games to their string of winnings. Now the two battle on Grant field, and regardless of what past returns show, unless weather conditions should by some means butt in to interfere, two hectic scraps may be expected. First and foremost in the minds of each is the idea of trimming the other, but in addition to this there is a further consideration at stake. On the outcome of the games depends largely the title of S. I. A. A. championship. If Georgia takes one of the two games they will have a clear claim to the honor. On the other hand, if the Jackets get both it will be necessary that the two teams play a fifth and deciding game at some later date. But championship or no, Georgia and Tech are mixing it in athletic combat, and whenever such a battle is on it means a battle from start to finish with both teams contesting stubbornly every inch of ground.

Coach Heisman will line up his Jackets as they were in the Athens games, and says that he will probably use Eubanks in the first game. Bean also will send his lineup in intact, and will probably use Hitchcock in the opener. TECH.

Tech Track Men Leave for Meet

Coach Alexander Carried Eight Men to Meridian for S. I. A. A. Meet

The Tech track squad, including eight men, and Coach Alexander, left Thursday night for the S. I. A. A. track meet which will be held at Meridian, Miss., Saturday. This is the second meet that the Jackets have entered this season, and to judge from their first performance they should make a good showing. A few weeks ago the Jackets won a dual battle, and trounced the Carolinians for the first time in the history of track athletics at Tech.

Yankee Golfers Are Below Form

Travers Leads Our Entry With Score of 77—Olmert Turns in An 80

SANDWICH, England, May 15.—Form displayed by the American entrants in the first round of competition for the R. George cup here Wednesday was hardly up to what had been expected. Many of the players, who will take part in the British amateur golf championship next week, were among the competitors in Wednesday's contest and will appear again today for the final eighteen holes.

Jerome D. Travers returned a score of 77 which tied him with two others for eighth place. He is now regarded by observers here as the only one among the Americans who stands a chance of winning the coveted trophy. In practice the other day he covered the same course in 69 and it is said if he repeats that performance tomorrow he may still come out on top.

D. Ransome, the English player, who heads the list with 72, was favored with extraordinary luck. He is not recorded in the first flight of golfers and it will be a great surprise if he does as well tomorrow.

Francis Olmert, the open champion of the United States, in whose play great interest centered, turned in a card of 80. Harold H. Hilton, the British amateur champion, gave a brilliant display of golf in the first half, reaching the turn in 55, but he took ten more than that coming in, making a total of 74 for the round.

H. D. Gillies, of London, the holder of the trophy, covered the course in 77 tying Travers.

Return of Men Ought to Help Turtles Climb

Red McDermott Goes to Join Club Following Absence of Three Weeks From Line-Up. Due to Illness—Pitcher Same Is Also Added

MEMPHIS, May 18.—With the return to playing form of his crippled pitcher Mike Finn, the Memphis club has been able to offer a stiffer argument to the Turtles' managers from now on, than he has to date. Red McDermott left a few days ago with Pitcher Same to join the club at Mobile. McDermott stated before leaving that he was in shape to get into the game, and any time that he, Finn, will find a place for him on the Memphis club. Just where McDermott will find a place, however, but it is more than likely that the team will place either a third base or shortstop.

McDermott is a thoroughly reliable innkeeper and should have a steady influence on the inner works. He has recently shown a disposition to get into the game and Finn is anxious to have him in the game. McDermott's return is a valuable man when in confidence.

McDermott has come to the conclusion that if he wants to play ball this season, he will have to play with the Memphis club. He reported to the Memphis club a satisfied player and showed more confidence in the Western league, has been called upon by Jack Hendricks, the manager of the Indianapolis club, appeared in Memphis while the Chicago National league club was playing in Memphis. Hendricks was after McDermott, and the Cubs at the time and when they refused to consider McDermott, he was called upon by Jack Hendricks, who had a confidential talk with McDermott and since that time McDermott has been in the Memphis club.

When McDermott realized that he would not be displaced by Eddie Rector, he decided that the best thing he could do was to get into the Memphis club. Hendricks, while manager of the lower club in the Western league, has the reputation of tampering with players and getting them dissatisfied. A player cannot be blamed for getting into the game, but after he has signed a contract he should give a club his best services and in 39 years out of 40 a player will play for the same club and the same associations are regarded as permanent.

President Coleman has done everything in McDermott's case that could be expected of him, and McDermott's return to the Memphis club will be of benefit to the Memphis club. McDermott is too good a ball player to be on the bench, and his play in the field will be of benefit to the Memphis club. McDermott's injured arm is again in better shape, and McDermott will be in all likelihood be in the game with the Memphis club on Saturday, May 17.

The swelling and soreness caused by the dislocation have been eradicated and McDermott has been taking light practice. McDermott has been in the Memphis club for a long time and has been in the Memphis club for a long time and has been in the Memphis club for a long time.

Mike Harrell, who has been on the bench with inflammation of the neck, is getting better and may be called into the game within the next couple of weeks. McDermott has been practicing at Red Elm and states that his arm is in much better shape. He started out this spring and showed enough stuff to get him into the Memphis club. He was due for a good season.

In shifting around the major league ball and was never hit hard. McDermott's Memphis club has been playing a standard and when McDermott has been playing the Memphis club, he has been playing the Memphis club. McDermott has been playing the Memphis club for a long time and has been in the Memphis club for a long time.

BROWNIE HOLMES ONLY STAR BASEBALL PLAYER WHO DOESN'T PARTICIPATE IN ANY GAMES—HE WRITES IT

BY KUGEN S. FULLERTON.

With mild emotions we observe that the powers (Macs) of organized baseball have ceased their objections to ball players writing for the papers by proxy.

At present Christy Mathewson, Frank Chance, John McGraw and several others are permitting syndicates to write stories under their names. In contradiction to the custom of former years, the fellows who are writing the stuff really ask the managers and players what they ought to say. Some of the information is real, and therefore worth while. The national commission and the older leagues having dropped the matter, it is up to the baseball writers to get busy and take their jobs away from the ball players.

There is only one writer of the present generation who can step out and make good as a writer. That writer is "Brownie" Holmes, of the Cincinnati Post. Manager Herzog says that if "Brownie" was not a shortstop he would have him on the regular team. If "Brownie" is a slender, speedy fellow, then he writes it, which is considerable.

Down south in the spring it was watching the Reds in the spring, and down came a fellow at just speed, to hit the dirt, and a twister, hooked his toe on the bag, and just as I was getting ready to make a note that he was a promising recruit, he trotted over. It was "Brownie" He went with the Red recruits, played second, short, third and caught for them, and acted as assistant manager. Then he took off the clothes, climbed into the typewriter and wrote the story of the games, from the inside.

A great many readers imagine that the reporters who have won fame have merely an academic knowledge of baseball. As a matter of fact a great many have been ball players, either as professionals or as college.

Down through the minors you will find it the same way. Nearly every man who writes the game has played it and (ball players to the contrary in some cases) understands it.

Of the present day writers only one—Holmes—could get out and make good as a player. But that the players have never much on us. Only three of them—Eddie Collins, Doc White and Steve Evans—could make good as reporters.

information is real, and therefore worth while. The national commission and the older leagues having dropped the matter, it is up to the baseball writers to get busy and take their jobs away from the ball players.

There is only one writer of the present generation who can step out and make good as a writer. That writer is "Brownie" Holmes, of the Cincinnati Post. Manager Herzog says that if "Brownie" was not a shortstop he would have him on the regular team. If "Brownie" is a slender, speedy fellow, then he writes it, which is considerable.

Down south in the spring it was watching the Reds in the spring, and down came a fellow at just speed, to hit the dirt, and a twister, hooked his toe on the bag, and just as I was getting ready to make a note that he was a promising recruit, he trotted over. It was "Brownie" He went with the Red recruits, played second, short, third and caught for them, and acted as assistant manager. Then he took off the clothes, climbed into the typewriter and wrote the story of the games, from the inside.

A great many readers imagine that the reporters who have won fame have merely an academic knowledge of baseball. As a matter of fact a great many have been ball players, either as professionals or as college.

Down through the minors you will find it the same way. Nearly every man who writes the game has played it and (ball players to the contrary in some cases) understands it.

Of the present day writers only one—Holmes—could get out and make good as a player. But that the players have never much on us. Only three of them—Eddie Collins, Doc White and Steve Evans—could make good as reporters.

TRIMMING THE BILLS

By Innis Brown

A battle of speed, strength and ambition on the one side, and craft, sagacity and strategy on the other was waged at Ponce de Leon Thursday between the teams of Billy Smith and the coach of Hobbs Gilks, and a swift kick in the Smith's hand the time-honored saying that "Smith must be served."

To continue further the details of the triumph of experience over youth, it may be mentioned that a young Mr. East, formerly a pastime in the Appalachian League, who was the coach of the Jersey Skeeters in the International circuit, before taking up his abode in this city. This does not mean to imply that Jack is a home-bred. It is a fact that Smiling Jack has maneuvered down through the days and months when he could be referred to as a recruit, rooky, or by other cognomen ordinarily applied to the ambitious youngster on the upward climb.

By rising up the returns in the box score it may be observed that a very slight margin separates the records of the two in the field. As a matter of fact, Baker, Hollander, Dribbles, et al., applied the slapstick successfully to Dosecher's offerings on as many occasions as Cracker bats turned back Bunch's offerings on as many occasions. Hollander was not. It was only in the matter of free pages and a single batter out in his favor. Jack issued free transportation to three Bunches while East saw him, and raised by an equal count to the B
